

Darkness to the Light

This is sung mainly by Winston with occasional harmony from Percy in the underground cabinet war room as he looks at the map of Europe and sees the ever growing threat from the Nazis.

All four WAAF's in the War Room join in the choruses.

Sometimes it's not easy, life can be really hard
Out there on the frontline, getting battle scarred
We're living in a crazy world and there seems no end in sight
Take my hand and lead me - from the darkness ... to the light

I'm in some place I don't recognize - it's like being in a dream
Unreal things keep happening - you know what I mean
If there's someone there can help me get through this longest night
Then take my hand and lead me - from the darkness ... to the light

*Take my hand, take my hand
Let's go find that promised land
I believe it will all come right
Take my hand and lead me - from the darkness ... to the*

*Take my hand, take my hand
Let's go find that promised land
I believe it will all come right
Take my hand and lead me - from the darkness ... to the light*

This voice inside keeps telling me, there'll come a brand new day
When we must face reality, not look the other way
So if I can right a wrong or two, maybe ease somebody's plight
Please take my hand and lead me - from the darkness ... to the light

*Take my hand, take my hand
Let's go find that promised land
I believe it will all come right
Take my hand and lead me - from the darkness to the ... to the light*
