

It's not necessary

This is sung by Winston. He has just been reprimanded by Clemmie for spending money they haven't got and he's going through all the unpaid bills as he sings.

I'm a man of few demands, I like travelling to far off lands
It's not necessary - but it's nice
Monaco and Africa, United States and Canada
It's not necessary but it's nice

Pullman train through Europe, first class flight
That was one of the best hotels, can't be right
Well anything inferior would lack a certain spice
It's not necessary - but it's nice

The roulette wheel, baccarat, chemin de fer - oh yes, and that
It's not necessary - but it's nice
I like to bet on a horse, I don't always win of course
It's not necessary - but it's nice

Ah! That cruise through the south sea isles, throwing quoits on deck
Going on safari - what the heck
Beluga caviar and pink champagne on ice
It's not necessary - but it's nice

I like fine wine and brandy, a good cigar is always handy
It's not necessary - but it's nice
A dinner party with my friends, why should I have to make amends
It's not necessary - but it's nice

Saville Row tailors, and hand made shoes
Restaurants with oysters - Par la douze
Outstanding quality doesn't have a price
It's not necessary - but it's nice

Instrumental verse

Saville Row tailors, and hand made shoes
Restaurants with oysters - Par la douze
Outstanding quality doesn't have a price
It's not necessary - but it's nice
