

Sigh and Try Again

*This is sung by Percy to a very depressed Winston, who is in a world of his own as he ponders the massive potential loss of life at Dunkirk.
The four WAAF's in the war room join in the choruses.*

Weary - lost - paying the cost
Of not listening to your heart - who's to know
Fallen - down – why did you drown
The truth that you found a while ago

Taking so long admitting the wrong
Walking round feeling pain
The only thing to do, when you're sad and blue
Is sigh and try again

*It's like looking for the rainbows end
Each and every time it rains, you sigh and try again*

Falling down - that's not failing
Staying down - you got yourself to blame
The only thing to do, when you're sad and blue
Is sigh and try again

*It's like looking for the rainbows end
Each and every time it rains, you sigh and try again*

The only thing to do, when you're sad and blue
Is sigh and try again
The only thing to do, when you're sad and blue
Is sigh and try again
